

NATO RAPID DEPLOYABLE CORPS -GREECE INTERNSHIP PROGRAMME I/2025

NRDC-GR is proud to introduce its Internship Program (NIP) and provide current university students and recent graduates with the opportunity to intern at its premises, which are located in Thessaloniki, Greece.

Through its NIP, the Headquarters is aiming to give young candidates from different backgrounds the prospect to be familiarized with specific areas of the Organization. The program will seek for up to ten interns. The cooperation with the HQ is built upon the willingness of the intern to cooperate with the HQ on a non-paid voluntary basis aiming to improve his/her educational qualifications.

We are generally interested in those candidates with the following skillsets:

- Information Technology
- Business Administration, Finance and Contracting
- International Studies
- Civil-military cooperation
- International Law
- Public Affairs/Media/Journalism
- International Relations/ Law/ Islamic Studies/ Gender Studies
- Strategic Studies
- Information System Management/Informatics
- System Analysis and Design
- Medical Studies
- Linguistic Services
- Civil and Environmental Engineering
- Graphic Designer - Graphic Arts

1. OBJECTIVES

The NIP has three main objectives:

- To provide interns with an opportunity to learn from the NRDC-GR community and gain a thorough understanding of the NRDC-GR and NATO in general.
- To provide NRDC-GR with access to the latest theoretical and technical knowledge that the interns can apply through practical project assignments.
- To expand the understanding of NATO in Allied countries.

2. PROCEDURES

NIP is a permanent program that it is executed twice a year. The NIP I/2025 is going to start in February 2025.

Following an internal assessment of specific projects proposed by Branches specifying duties and responsibilities for prospective interns, the NIP is bi-annually announced by the NRDC-GR homepage and/or social media.

Internship applications must be submitted using the enclosed application form. The candidates' CV must be attached to the application form, including their language and academic certificates. In addition, all interns have to submit a short motivation letter/essay, providing details on the motivation for an internship at NRDC-GR and on the expectations during the internship.

Following an initial screening by the HQ NIP coordinators, verifying that applicants meet the required criteria for the NIP and ensuring a balanced distribution of the interns among NATO nations, the applications are going to be circulated among and assessed by the requesting Divisions/Branches, prior to the final decision making.

The selection for the NIP I/2025 will be made late October 2024. Once the selection has been made, all applicants will be informed accordingly. Selected applicants will coordinate with the NIP coordinators the start date of the internship period, taking into account the HQ needs, the availability of the selected candidate and the security requirements.

3. CANDIDATES

The NIP is focusing on highly motivated candidates from a wide variety of disciplines including political science, international relations, security studies, law, economics, engineering, logistics, human resources, financial administration and management, accounting/auditing, information technology, language service, journalism, media communications, graphic arts and other relevant areas.

The NIP will be limited to ten interns per cycle; it will last up to six months and for the following cases:

- Internship program, as part of, or complementary to, a university degree program as arranged by the intern with his/her university.
- Internship program for, in principle, recent graduates at the Bachelor/Baccalaureate level, who are interested in a specific project that could support a Master's program as arranged by the intern with his/her university.
- Internship program for recent graduates of a Master or PhD program who are looking for experience in an international environment as a first step to an international career.

The calls for applications for the NIP I/2025 will close on Monday, 30 Sep 2024.

Applications received after the mentioned date will not be accepted.

4. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To qualify for an internship, the applicant must meet the following eligibility criteria:

- All applicants for an internship must be citizens of a NATO member Nation.
- All applicants must be proficient in the use of the English language.
- All applicants must have at least two years of successful university studies or equivalent.
- The program is open to current students or recent graduates (degree obtained within the last 18 months).

Only applications fulfilling the eligibility criteria will be taken into consideration. The others will be rejected automatically.

5. CONDITIONS OF INTERNSHIP

The internship is provided on a voluntarily basis and it is unfunded. Arrangements for travel and accommodation and living expenses are intern's responsibility. Additionally, interns are required to be insured for social security and health care and they should meet on their own responsibility any requirements for student visa and residence permit in Greece.

6. APPLICATION FORM

Only applications completed in accordance with the following instructions will be taken into consideration. The others will be rejected automatically.

Please attach a CV, a short motivation letter/essay, explaining and giving details about your motivation in applying for an internship at NRDC-GR and respected certifications (language, graduations etc.). The application with the attachments (CV, motivation letter, certificates) must be compressed into one PDF file. The file should contain the name of the candidate in the title (e.g. Marialoannou.pdf).

If you notice a mistake after you have submitted your application, please submit your application once again. Only the latest version of your application will be taken into consideration during the selection process.

NATO UNCLASSIFIED

Due to server restrictions, the size of your mail(s) has to be less than 6 MB; sending your application with all attachments in several mails is feasible and will be fully taken into consideration.

7. SECURITY CLEARANCE

Interns must possess a valid NATO Personnel Security Clearance Certificate (PSCC), with NATO SECRET classification. The issuance of Security Clearance is the responsibility of the interns to obtain before the beginning of the program, according to their national procedures. NRDC-GR may provide further guidance and assistance, but ultimately it is the responsibility of the selected individuals to ensure they meet the necessary requirements before starting the program.

The delivery of the PSCC to the HQ Security Office of NRDC-GR upon arrival is mandatory. Failure to obtain the required clearance could result in denial of access to the program.
